

21st Ankara International Film Festival

As part of its mission to support important projects in education, culture, the arts, and sports, Halkbank has taken on the role of main sponsor of the 21st Annual Ankara International Film Festival to be held from March 11 to 21, 2010.

Halkbank has been a proud supporter of the Ankara International Film Festival – a renowned event in the arts sphere in Turkey and internationally recognized – since 2009. As the festival's main sponsor, Halkbank will help improve cinema culture in Turkey in the coming years as well.

With the support of Halkbank, the festival brings the most prominent examples of Turkish and world cinema to the capital and rejuvenates the city's cultural scene.

As part of the Ankara International Film Festival, festival-goers will have the chance to see screenings of the National Feature Film Competition, National Short Film Competition and National Documentary Film Competition, as well as to attend several workshops, panel discussions, and interviews. The festival also plays an important role in invigorating Ankara, the diplomatic centre, with the various shades of cinema.

For the festival programme and detailed information, please visit <http://www.filmfestankara.org.tr/en>